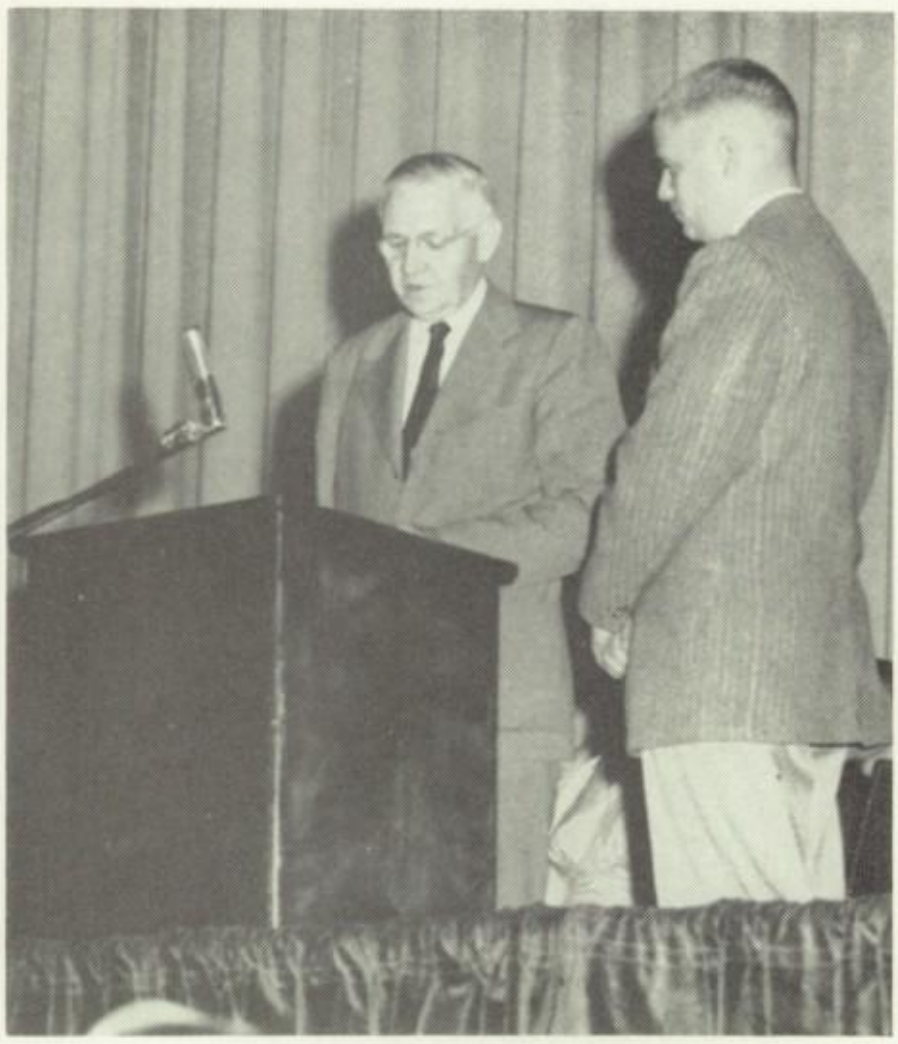
Miss Harriet Derby Snow

who organized the Student Participation Association at Thomas Jefferson and served as its sponsor 1934-1938 and who served the students of Thomas Jefferson with understanding and devotion as teacher of science 1930-1956.

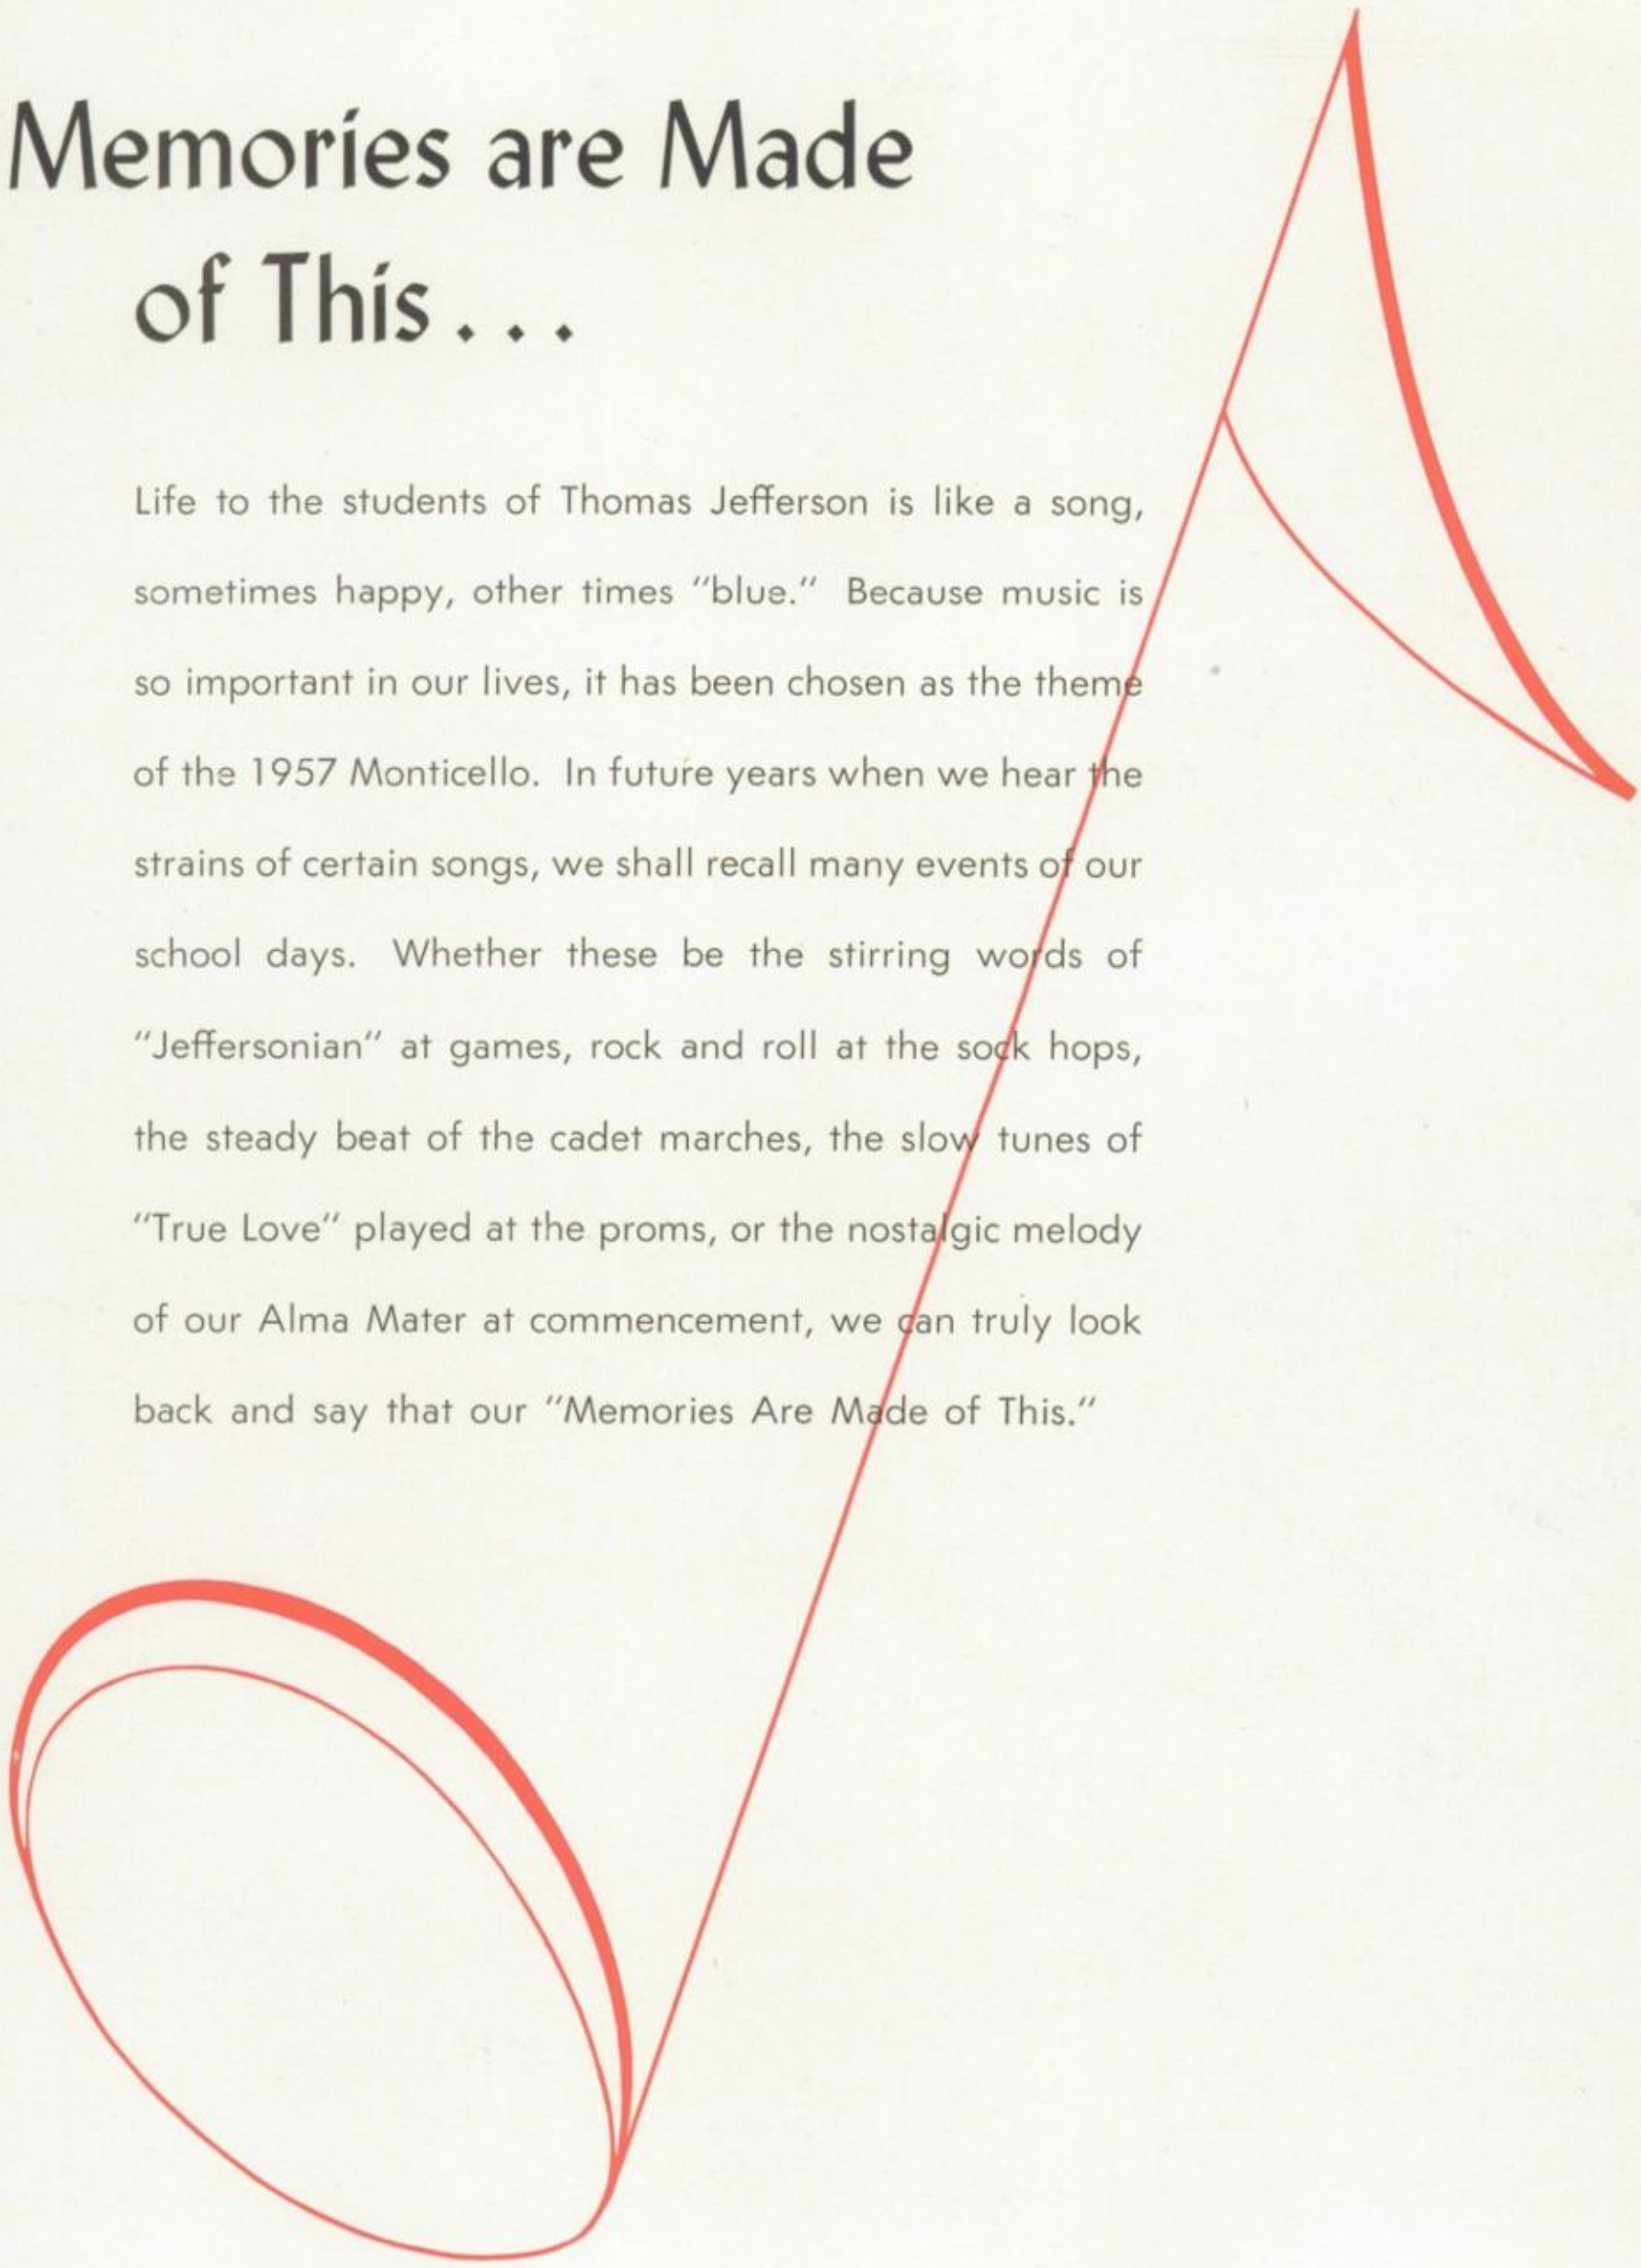


Millard Jones takes the oath of office as president of the Student Participation Association in the traditional fall ceremony of installation, conducted by Tee Jay principal, Mr. Hancock.

The MONTICELLO salutes the Honor Council for its initiative and willingness in establishing an Honor Code for the students of Thomas Jefferson.

Memories are Made of This . . .

Life to the students of Thomas Jefferson is like a song, sometimes happy, other times "blue." Because music is so important in our lives, it has been chosen as the theme of the 1957 Monticello. In future years when we hear the strains of certain songs, we shall recall many events of our school days. Whether these be the stirring words of "Jeffersonian" at games, rock and roll at the sock hops, the steady beat of the cadet marches, the slow tunes of "True Love" played at the proms, or the nostalgic melody of our Alma Mater at commencement, we can truly look back and say that our "Memories Are Made of This."



''O, ALMA MATER, WE WILL

CHERISH FOND MEMORIES OF THEE.''

TOPNOTCH COURSES

Tough courses offer a challenge to a considerable number of Tee Jay students. The number of students enrolled in such courses as trigonometry, geometry 3, algebra 4 and 5, as well as the number enrolled in physics and chemistry in Tee Jay, shows that many do not steer away from these more difficult subjects. Thus faculty members find satisfaction in helping their students lay the foundation for work as engineers, scientists, and mathematicians. To promote interest in engineering the Junior Engineering Technical Society is now being formed in Thomas Jefferson High School.

TEACHERS AS PEOPLE

Contrary to the belief of some students, teachers do more than just teach. They lead their own private lives outside the classroom, watching television, running homes, rearing families, and pursuing a multitude of hobbies. Mrs. Meara Nicolson, art teacher, paints, as expected, but she also has three children of school age, and she keeps in running condition a '41 Willis. Miss Jean Hemphill, another art teacher, has her work exhibited in the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts and is active in such organizations as the Southern Highland Handicraft Guild.

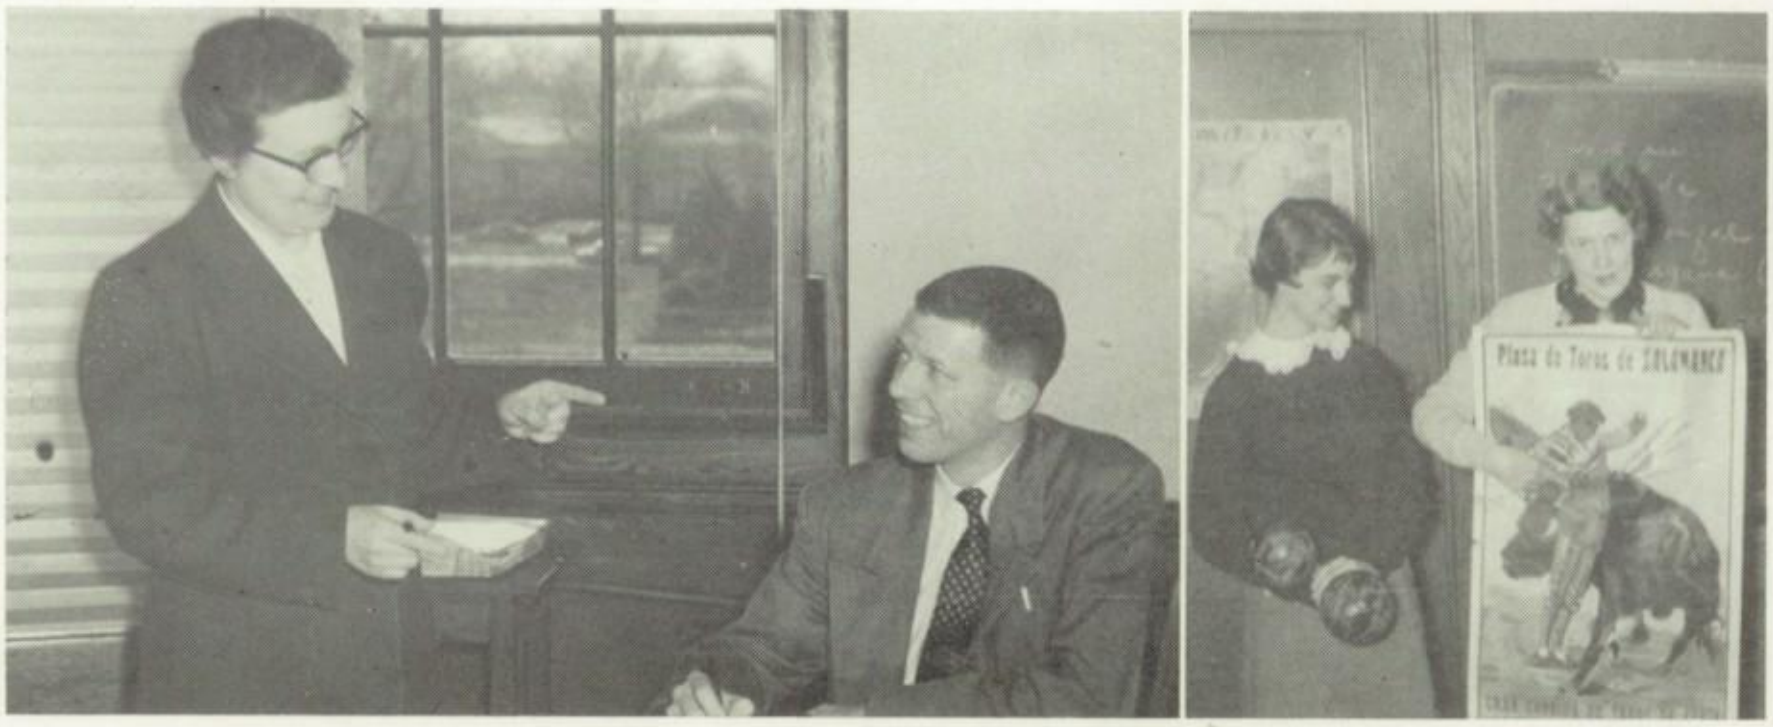
Are mechanical drawing classes at Tee Jay open only to boys? Certainly not. Mr. Allison, mechanical drawing teacher, reveals that there are four girls in his classes and that they actually earn higher grades than the boys. Pictured here is Mr. Allison giving instruction to Willie Trent and Shiras Elliot.

Biology students prepare to come down to earth as Miss Lyndele Pitt places with Assistant Principal Mooney an order for earthworms, emphasizing length, with the suggestion, "The longer the better."

Spanish comes alive when Miss Bettie Beaman with Carol Sue Reese displays a poster from Spain, "Anuncio Corrida de Toros," showing the movement in a bull fight.



IN MEMORIAM

To Miss Katie Mae Davis – loyal colleague, unfailing friend, esteemed teacher – a member of the English department from the opening of Thomas Jefferson in September, 1930, until her death in February, 1957, the administration, faculty, and student body dedicate this page in loving memoriam. The very real benediction of happy memories of Miss Davis is the heritage of all of us who have had the privilege of being associated with her.

Senior pals have a spur of the moment party in the Rec Hall.

A new crop of excited Jeffs entered Tee Jay and quickly organized into the class of 1957. Officers chosen were Millard Jones, Nancy Simpson, Jackie Shahda, and Frankie Willard. Mrs. Garna Kraft was selected to be class sponsor and George Baskerville represented the class in the Senate. Forest Hill Park was the scene of a gay picnic, and even the rain didn't dampen the spirits of the frosh.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

Elected to lead the sophomores were George Baskerville, Nancy Simpson, Jackie Shahda, and Frankie Willard. Representing the class in the Senate were Millard Jones, Kitty Chappell, and Ben Eldridge. Many holidays were devoted to fun and fellowship for the sophomores while collecting and selling papers in order to aid the treasury. "The Confederacy" was the theme of the sophomore dance climaxing the year, which was Tee Jay's twenty-fifth anniversary.

"Parlor Rats," our Junior Stunt Night, under the able direction of Bill Keech, was a smashing success. Class members began to receive recognition in clubs, athletics, and military. Leading the juniors were Millard Jones, Martha Hinkle, Susan Payne, and Mac Duke. The juniors honored the seniors in May with a dance "Plantation Fantasy." Ben Eldridge, George Baskerville, Nancy Simpson, Mary Beth Sikkelee, and Kitty Chappell were our senators. Mr. Alton Howell became class sponsor. Junior cheerleaders were Sara Ellen Flowers and Beth Weaver Luck. Winning the outstanding Junior Awards were Martha Hinkle and Millard Jones.

SENIOR YEAR

Serving as officers for S.P. were Millard Jones, Kitty Chappell, Beverly Kersey, Mary Beth Sikkelee, and Mac Duke. Elected Miss Jeff, Beverly Kersey reigned over the annual T.J.-J.M. football clash. Nancy Simpson, Susan Payne, Sue Wilson, and George Sweet served the class as officers, while Mary Turner, Margaret Eubank, Jane Givens, Terry Welborn, and Butch Spiegel served as Senators. Nancy Edmunds and Millard Jones were chosen as King and Queen of the "Snow Ball," the Senior-Junior dance. "Mother Is a Freshman" was presented by the Senior Class in March. Class Day in June was celebrated by the wearing of red and white. The Class Picnic brought a welcome holiday from school. Farewell to the Class of 1957 was said following the traditional Baccalaureate Service in June, and graduation at the Mosque on June 10.

One More Year to Go

Boy! Don't forget 3:12 (Mr. Foreman). How cool you are. Seriously, I want to wish you the very, very best for the years ahead. I want to see you in a uniform. Hum! Guy

The Junior Class boasted more than 400 members this year. The class officers were Guy Tripp, president; Henry Holland, vice-president; Jane Clarke, secretary, and Al Ford, treasurer. Mrs. Norma Broaddus guided the class in its projects. The theme for Junior Stunt Night, "Westward We Three," evidenced the interest in our foreign exchange student, Sabine Kleinbeck, who lived for the year with a member of the class, Margaret McFee. The production written by members of the class featured three foreign exchange students. In the Senate, Stuart Crenshaw, Johnny Scherer, Nancy Wilson, Larry Reed, and Brad Gunter represented the juniors. The spring Junior-Senior Dance was thoroughly delightful and an exciting climax for a wonderful year.

Eyes on the Calendar

To promote cooperation and understanding among Tee Jay's various extra-curricular organizations is the objective of the B.O.C. The Board is composed of the sponsors and presidents of the senior, junior, sophomore, and freshman classes; sponsors and representatives from all publications; representatives from the boys' and girls' athletics; and a representative from the cadet corps. The B.O.C. meets usually once a month. Assigning dates for social events, sports events, and club meetings, the Board prevents conflicts and gives each activity an equal opportunity in carrying out its yearly program. The main accomplishment of the B.O.C. this past year was the selection of a student to represent Thomas Jefferson abroad this summer in the American Field Service Foreign Summer Exchange Plan. The B.O.C. is sponsored by the Tee Jay Student Participation Association.

The S. P. Officers

SABINE KLEINBECK
Foreign Exchange Student from Germany

Sabine Kleinbeck, who came to us from Germany this year, has been cheerful, inspirational, and most friendly. In the Senate, as a member with a vote, Sabine has been able to voice her opinion freely. We hope her visit has been as beneficial to her as it has been to us. Sabine aptly stated, "I am here to tell you about my country and our life in Germany; and when I return home, to explain to my friends all that I learned from you."

The Senate

Everyday during the fourth period in the tower room, the officers of the school, the presidents of the four classes, and the other Senators are found at work. Tuesdays are reserved for business meetings, Fridays for the filling out of notices to be sent to special committees to remind them to function the following week, and the other days for committee meetings.

This year representatives were sent to city, state, regional, and national S.C.A. conventions. The highlight of the year was the school-wide election of Senators with the political trimmings of speeches and campaign posters exhibited throughout the school.

To Improve . .

Each year brings a new selection of House members. These leaders in the House of Representatives serve for a single term, but many of them are re-elected for the second semester, permitting the House to continue its work with less interruption. As the House is composed of a representative from each homeroom, it serves as the most successful means of communication between the Senate and the student body. The homeroom representatives are chosen because they excel in qualities of leadership, scholastic ability, and enthusiasm. These qualities are fundamental for accomplishment in school activities.

Among the achievements of this year's House have been the collection of the gift fund for Thomas Jefferson's exchange student from Germany, Sabine Kleinbeck, and the planning of the birthday party given for her on St. Valentine's Day.

Your School

The House also helped the Senate decorate the Miss Jeff float for the Tee Jay-Jayem game. Through the efforts of this body of homeroom delegates, the Big-Brother and Big-Sister program has been successfully carried out again this year. Under the chairmanship of Senior Emory Anderson, the committee promoting the Alma Mater distributed copies of the school song to the students.

Throughout the year committees have been functioning on projects, such as improvements in assemblies and in the cafeteria and "rec" hall and the promotion of school spirit. The calendar in the front hall is sponsored by the House calendar committee headed by Ken McElroy. Members of the House also aided the Senate in its work on the Activities Point System by supervising the filling out of the point cards by the students in the different homerooms.

Better Ways . . .

To inform its members of the essentials of homeroom leadership is the aim of the Council of Homeroom Presidents. The Council endeavors to strengthen the homerooms by helping each president conduct successful and efficient meetings in his own room. The Student Participation Association is aware that its strength and influence depend greatly on the homerooms which comprise it. Increasing emphasis has been placed on the council since it was founded in 1955 because there had been doubt that the homerooms were strong enough to support Student Participation activities. Better planned and more orderly homeroom meetings have resulted this year from the experience and training gained in the council by the presiding officers of the various homerooms.

For Presidents

The council meets the first Tuesday in each month to plan projects and consider problems brought up by the students in the homerooms and presented to the council by the homeroom presidents. The first meeting of the council always necessitates the election of a secretary, a planning committee, and a project committee.

As an example of a worthwhile project, this year the council sponsored two busses to the Tee Jay-Wakefield football game in Arlington, Virginia. This project promoted so much interest and enthusiasm that it has been recommended as an annual one. The group was sponsored this year by Mrs. Brummel, and presided over by Millard Jones, president of the Student Participation Association.

"We Pledge Ourselves . . .

By promoting the ideals stated in the school pledge the Character Committee accomplishes its primary purpose. This year the program was planned by a steering committee headed by Margaret Eubank, Senate chairman, and sponsored by Mrs. Frances Wimer. Doug Reed, Kathleen Sprenkle, Jim Chandler, and John Anthony respectively represented the freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior classes in this steering committee. Also included were vice-president of the Character Committee, Irene Bambacus, and a representative from the Honor System Committee, Dotty Sapoch. The program promoted the ideals of honesty, courtesy, self-control, co-operation, kindness, justice, and obedience in the home, community, and school, with Honor Week observed January 14-18.

To High Ideals"

Major emphasis was placed on a program to encourage honesty during the month of January. The plan was brought before the student body through the homerooms, each homeroom having a representative at each Character Committee meeting. Later students participated in code signing of a pledge card. Serving on the Honor Council to administer the program were Ned Peple and Marc Seldes, chairmen; Dotty Sapoch, Irene Bambacus, Carol Chapman, Ann Gardner, Larry Reed, Margaret Eubank, Beverly Kersey.

Another phase of the year's work was that of the Welcoming Committee, which provides a "big brother or sister" for those new students not entering Thomas Jefferson with a particular group.

"The Larger Heart . . .

Guided by its motto, "We Serve," the Junior Red Cross strives to promote good will and lend a helping hand to all those in need. Service to others is the important factor in the Red Cross.

In their meetings on the first Fridays of each month, the Junior Red Cross representatives from their homerooms hear of many worthy projects. With volunteers from their homerooms, they show willingness and desire to help in the work. With the guidance of its sponsor, Miss Helen Botto, the Tee Jay Chapter has accomplished many worth-while services. Volunteer aides have provided many bright hours for children at the Medical College of Virginia Hospital, and other members have performed numerous and useful jobs at the Chapter House.

And Kindlier Hand"

At Thanksgiving the stage of the Tee Jay auditorium was filled with brightly decorated baskets, brimming with canned goods and groceries to be sent to needy families and welfare institutions in Richmond. The food in these baskets was donated by Tee Jay students through their homerooms. Just before Christmas students were busy filling stockings with candy and chewing gum. These stockings were taken to the patients at McGuire Veterans' Hospital.

The student body had an especially successful membership drive, working, as in the past, in fine cooperation with the Red Cross Council, and enrolling one hundred percent in the campaign. Jane Givens was Senate chairman and Alice Kent, chairman of volunteer work.

"O God, Our Help"

For a period of fellowship and inspiration a group of Jeffs meet each morning before school in the teachers' dining room. This group, the Christian Youth League, seeks to give every student at Tee Jay the opportunity of beginning the day well. The brief devotional periods usually include a chorus or hymn, a short devotional message, and a prayer. This year the League has strongly urged all of its members to attend the pep rallies, feeling that school spirit and Christianity go hand in hand. Cooperative effort on the part of all members has resulted in a very effective program for the year. Officers have been Ed Wade, president; Zaida Brown, vice-president; Joan Blesse, secretary; Henry Holland, treasurer; Kathy Albright, devotional chairman.

"Far Away Places"

"Foreign Policy of the United States since 1920" was the theme of the Tee Jay Forum in 1956-57. The group stressed the importance of a knowledge of world affairs as a help to young people in accepting their places in the world. Since this was election year, the Forum devoted its first three meetings to the campaigns, candidates, and party platforms. The Forum, which meets the first and third Wednesdays of each month after school, is composed of students who are interested in history and are recommended by a history teacher. Under the leadership of Miss Mary Maddox and Mr. Gene Barham, the history-minded members were well-informed on current affairs. Henry Holland has been president, and Wayne Johnson, vice-president and program chairman during this session.

Outstanding dramatic service at Thomas Jefferson carries with it great recognition, membership in the Thespian Troup 741. Membership in this honor society requires an interest in dramatics, a minimum of ten service points in dramatic activities, and the dramatics teacher's recommendation of each candidate.

"The Well-Trod Stage"...A Story to Tell

Book discussion, book reviews, and other activities were part of the Book Club meetings. Professional book reviewers and capable students were asked to review books for the group. The Book Club also donated a book to our school library. Club members also reviewed a book for the Richmond Book Council.

"Westward We Three"

I say, old chap, but did you see "Westward We Three," the class of 58's Junior Stunt Night? Yes, it really proved to be a spectacular production, you know. Mrs. Broaddus sponsored it and Larry Reed directed it. Margaret McFee and Marc Seldes were the assistant and technical directors, respectively. Featuring an accordionist, a trombonist, and other performers in many well-spiced acts, Stunt Night was rated as a great success.

It was put on in the Thomas Jefferson auditorium November 20th and 21st. "Westward We Three" featured Stanley Soble, Bonnie Buff, and Bruce Allnutt as the three exchange students from France, Sweden, and England. The proceeds from Junior Stunt Night will be used by the class to sponsor junior-senior dances, senior class picnics, and possibly a gift to Tee Jay.

Time Out for Sports

Tebahoes! This name is derived from tennis, basketball, hockey, and softball. To become a member of Tebahoes, sponsored by Miss Edith Todd, a girl must have received at least one varsity award on one of the teams. This group of girls strives to promote girls' athletics at Tee Jay by emphasizing sportsmanship, arousing interest, and encouraging participation. The girls' cafeteria committee and an amusing student-teacher basketball game are sponsored each year by the Tebahoes. Useful equipment is contributed to girls' athletics from the proceeds of this basketball game. This year the club acquired pins inscribed with the name "Tebahoes". The goal of Tebahoes is to make Tee Jay a better place for clean thinking and living through the observance of sportsmanship.

Honors to Harry A. Woody

The Harry A. Woody Club, formerly known as S. P. 123, was organized to serve the school. Last year the named of the club was changed to honor Mr. Woody in appreciation of his work with the group. "Rec" hall duty, the sale of drinks at sock hops, church attendance as a group are a few of the activities of this organization. Funds raised by such projects as paper drives are contributed toward the betterment of the school. Membership, limited to thirty, is open to any sophomore, junior, or senior male student. The prospective members must first seek membership to the club by application. These applications are reviewed and the applicants are screened and voted on by the present members of the Harry A. Woody Club.

Sponsored by the Richmond Kiwanis Club, the Key Club of Thomas Jefferson High School, is an international service organization of thirty members. Members, elected proportionately from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes, are chosen for high scholastic standing, leadership ability, initiative, and outstanding character. The objectives of the Key Club are to develop leadership in its members and to serve both the school and the community. The international motto is WE BUILD. Johnny Towell attended the National Key Club Convention in Dallas, Texas, as representative of the Tee Jay club. Delegates were also sent to the Capital District Convention. Nancy Wilson was chosen Sweetheart of the Key Club. Sabine Kleinbeck was named Honorary Sweetheart.

Service to School . . .

In order to secure information and training on how Hi-Y should be operated, several members from both clubs attended a Hi-Y conference at Blue Ridge, North Carolina. After a week of training, they returned with the intention of reorganizing the clubs to serve better the purpose of Hi-Y, "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character."

Both clubs met weekly, Hi-Y I on Monday night and Hi-Y II on Wednesday night, and held programs consisting of a business meeting followed by either a guest speaker, movies, projects, or some other planned activities. Aside from these regular programs, the clubs members performed useful services for their school and community.

And to Community

The boys of the Hi-Y serve in the "Rec" Hall and the cafeteria during lunch to keep order and relieve congestion. As one of the many projects of the clubs, Hi-Y I sponsors an annual Victory Dance after the Thomas Jefferson-John Marshall football game, and Hi-Y II sells programs for all home football games.

Hi-Y this year inaugurated morning devotions on the school radio system. This developed into a regular daily operation for all clubs and activities in the school. The Hi-Y's hope that this will be of permanent benefit to the boys and girls of Tee Jay. These clubs strive for clean speech, clean sports, scholarship, and clean living.

For Fellowship . . .

Promoting understanding and sisterhood were the foremost purposes of the Y-Teens. This organization opened its membership to any girl interested in growing in fellowship, knowledge and love of God. Y-Teens is a part of the great nation-wide organization, the Y. W. C. A.

A trip to Washington, D. C., to attend the National Vesper Service was one of the high-points of the year's activities. At Christmas the Teens also sponsored a dance and invited the Highland Springs High School Y-Teens as guests. A number of guest speakers made the meetings very interesting. Through the year the Teens have sponsored parties, trips and service projects. One project was conducting the devotions over the loud speaker system each morning for a week.

And Understanding

The Y-Teens gave to school and community many outstanding services during the year. Inside, school members worked as aides in the cafeteria. Outside school they performed duties at the Medical College of Virginia and at the Methodist Orphanage.

Y-Teens this year were hostesses to the annual Mid-Winter Conference, which was held in Richmond. During the summer Y-Teens from Thomas Jefferson had the privilege of sending their president, Jerri Mills, to the regional conference held at Camp Sequoyah, North Carolina.

All in all, Y-Teens from Tee Jay are justly proud of their organization and their work, for they have through sisterhood broadened their horizons and have for the future learned valuable lessons in leadership.

Scientists for the Future

If anyone wants to earn extra activity points during his study period, he may find a job in either 325 or 3A. Here Miss Helen Gill and Mrs. Browning can find endless tasks and errands in the chemistry or the biology stockrooms and laboratory. Chemistry "lab" assistants are always busy, setting out equipment for experiments, checking invoices and stock, or running various errands. Biology "lab" assistants can be found with the department's cart carrying specimens or microscopes. This is an excellent activity for a student with one year of science.

Backstage Helpers

"Up the mikes, down the back drop, up the legs, and kill that spot", all this and more are the things the boys of the stage crew must understand in order to carry out their numerous jobs. The two boys on the stage each period must be well trained and qualified. If one wonders what makes the shows a success this is the answer. Each show, such as the operetta, Junior Stunt Night, the Senior Class Play, requires special preparation.

The crew must set up all equipment, and then they are held responsible for its safety. All this work is done during the day under the sponsorship of Mr. Alton Howell and the supervision of Bobby Knight and Garnett Kennedy.

Their Final Goal . . .

Contact with the business world is an advantage of the Business Education Club. This contact is established through trips to banks and business offices. Also, during the bi-monthly meetings, key persons in the business world often speak to the club. One of the key persons who spoke to the club was Miss Shirley Miller from Reynolds Metals. She spoke to the club on the topic, "The Business World of Today."

Activities such as picnics, parties, and movies occasionally provide entertainment for the members. The Club went to Forest Hill Park this spring for the annual picnic. The Alumni Association were guests at the picnic, and they explained to the Business Education Club what the Alumni Association was and their activities. Students studying one or more business subjects are eligible for membership.

The Business World

Membership in the Bookkeeping Club is obtained by the students with an active interest in business subjects. The Bookkeeping Club offers its members the opportunity to learn more about the modern business world. The Club members obtain useful and interesting information about business practices through hearing talks from men and women sent to the club by various business firms in Richmond. A representative from one firm spoke to the group about obtaining jobs and job opportunities. Teaching business subjects as a profession was also discussed at a meeting. The members were given an opportunity to learn more about bookkeeping and to use this knowledge in actual practice. The members learn what to expect in a future profession of bookkeeping. Recreation for the members is provided in the form of informal gatherings and parties.

Gaudeamus Igitur

Latin lives for the students taking higher Latin when they become members of the Latin Club. To become a member a candidate must endure a rigid initiation enacted by the old members. Then all are ready to enjoy the activities. This year on alternate Mondays Beverly Parker, consul, called the Latin Club, S.P.Q.R., to order in Room 107. Meetings were followed by entertainment provided by Amy Sadler, pro consul. The dues collected by Dee Conwell, quaester, helped finance a banquet given in Roman style. Another activity that went into the scrap book of the historian, Jane Roulston, was an account of the celebration of Virgil's birthday. In the spring a picnic was held to introduce prospective members. Always the club lives up to its motto, "Facta, non Verba."

Hasta la Vista

Students taking Spanish and others interested in the language and customs of Spanish-speaking countries made up the Spanish Club, which met every third Tuesday of this year under the sponsorship of Miss Betty Beaman and Mrs. King. Activities of the first semester, such as the selling of stationery, were planned with the idea of raising money for a trip to Europe. However, the trip was called off for this year due to the world situation.

The events of the second semester were more varied. At one program the mother of a club member spoke on her trip to Puerto Rico, and at another program a member showed slides of the Spanish Club trip to Cuba last summer. An assembly program, sponsored by the Club and put on with the aid of the Spanish classes, was entitled "Sunday Costs Five Pesos." The year was closed with a social which had as honored guests the members who sold the most stationery.

For Health and Healing

To further the knowledge of the members in the field of medicine is the goal of the Future Nurses' Club. Many informative speakers talked on the field of nursing, physiotherapy, and hospital administration. There have also been lectures on the work of laboratory, medical, and x-ray technicians. This has increased the group's knowledge and appreciation of a medical career. Volunteer work was done in several Richmond hospitals to further acquaint the girls with the medical field. Also field trips and films have increased the interest of the members of the club.

Miss Rosemond Abernathy is the school sponsor and Mrs. Truesdell is the representative from the Women's Auxiliary to the Richmond Academy of Medicine. To them the future nurses are most grateful.

Teachers for Tomorrow

A newcomer to the organizations at Tee Jay is the William Hoyt Deierhoi Chapter of the Future Teachers of America, consisting of seventeen charter members. Under the able guidance of Mrs. Frances Wimer a constitution was drawn up, the year's program planned, and a name chosen. This chapter was named to honor Assistant Superintendent, Mr. Deierhoi, because of his unfailing and willing work for teachers for forty-seven years.

The club's main purpose is to create a further interest in the teaching profession for capable students. Through varied activities, members become acquainted with the qualification, responsibilities, and opportunities of a teacher. One of the club's main activities this year was a program, held on January 16, when the charter was presented. Mr. Deierhoi was given an F.T.A. Key, and the officers were installed.

Drawing page plans, cropping pictures, arranging name lists, writing copy, checking names for spelling, writing captions, correcting copy, and meeting deadlines are a few of the numerous duties of the Monticello Literary Staff. Through pictures, art, and writing comes a record in the Monticello of our 1957 year. Every Jeff takes pride in his annual, but few realize the hard task undertaken by the members of the literary staff. The production this year was possible only through effective planning and leadership of our editors, Harriet Rein and Frankie Willard, and our adviser, Miss Grace Rowe, with the cooperation of each staff member.

The Memory

To become a member of the literary staff, a student must be above average in his studies and must show ability to work hard in order to produce an accurate account of school life of our current year. The greatest reward comes in June when the annuals are presented to the literary and business staffs at a banquet. Also, at this time the new staff members are introduced and new positions on the staff announced.

Each year, the staff is represented at the conventions of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and at the Southern Interscholastic Press Association. This year Marc Seldes attended the former, returning with many new ideas.

The Means to . . .

Miss Gray, Adviser

Joanna Roden, Advertising Manager

Difficult but interesting describes the job of the Monticello Business Staff. In order to have the Monticello ready for the eager students, the staff members must secure advertising contracts from various merchants, take junior, senior, and organization pictures, arrange and compile "ad" proofs to be sent to the printer, and solicit sales for the annual. Under the guidance of Miss Frances Gray, the work is accomplished with relatively few difficulties. Every Friday a business meeting is held in 107, and members discuss advertising contracts, the budget, and practices of the business world. They acquire knowledge which will be useful to them in the future.

The reward for faithful service is recommendation for membership in Quill and Scroll, which is given to eligible juniors and seniors. Highlighting the year is the spring banquet, given by both Monticello staffs. Here new members are welcomed, new officers announced, and all duly rewarded with the premiere presentation of the year's annual.

Sketch and Snap!

To add to the enjoyment of the Monticello, the Art Staff designed the motifs for pages, the sketches for the cover, and the division sheets, according to a theme which was decided on by the entire Monticello Staff. The varied uses of art in the development of the theme called for much discussion, thought, and planning.

Because of the importance of photographs in the make-up of an annual, the Monticello photographers had the enormous job of recording all the varied phases of school life in Thomas Jefferson. The boys, who carried their pet "birdies" and counted expertly to three, were relied on by both the Business and Literary Staffs.

Paper and Paint

The members of the Declaration Art Staff contribute to the magazine with their illustrations for stories, poems and essays as well as with sketches for section heads of the various divisions of the Declaration. The covers are designed and silk screened by this group with the aid of the art classes. The staff also helps the Circulation Department with the publicity program for the magazine by making posters. Much of the credit for earning the coveted Medalist Award goes to the members of the art staff.

Twice a year,
In December and May,
We proudly present
The greatest display
Of poems and stories,
Thoughtful and gay,
To all the fine students
Who toil at Tee Jay.
The finished product all can view
But how many know of the work we do?

For instance . . .

Cutting, counting, dummies and pasteups are just dictionary words to most of Tee Jay's students, but to the members of the DECLARATION Literary Staff they represent the tools of their trade. The staff, which meets at the fourth period and calls room 206 home, is composed of twenty-four handworking Jeffs. The art of compiling a magazine takes not only work but experience, and that's where Miss Singleton, our adviser comes in.

Charlie,
I'll miss hearing your booming voice in the morning.
Love,

DECLARATION LITERARY STAFF

Winged Words

The staff begins working on the winter magazine as soon as the back-to-school bell rings in September. The drive for material commences as soon as the posters can be taped on the walls.

Each article considered for publication is read and re-read by the staff. It is edited, polished, and the units counted. Then it is typed and re-typed, given a final inspection and sent to the printer.

After all this careful preparation, the staff relaxes for a few weeks until the galley sheets come back. Then, for about a week, 206 again hums with activity. Finally the magazine has been compiled in full and is ready for the printing press.

When the finished product arrives, each staff member feels a certain pride of accomplishment. The ordeal is over; the magazine has come. Almost immediately, the co-editors, Ann Lipman and Jean Murray, begin preparing for—what else? The next issue of the DECLARATION!

"Quick Silver"...

EMILIE ANDERSON
JOAN VELLINES

"We've made it!" This glad cry was heard in Room 204 when the Business Staff of the Declaration obtained the last hard-earned dollar needed to finance the magazine. The staff, headed by Joan Vellines, had worked diligently for weeks obtaining "ads" from the various business firms throughout the city. Result—the goal was reached! The real task, however, had just begun. Each staff member had to draw up his individual "ads" and from them make the dummy. Then came an intensive campaign for subscribers through every available means. The circulation department, headed by Emilie Anderson, handled the distribution through the English classes of Tee Jay as well as by the sale of extra copies in the various homerooms.

For the Declaration

In February the spring Declaration was planned, and afterward there followed a vigorous production and circulation campaign no less successful than that of the fall term.

As a reward for superior work and outstanding service on the staff, eligible juniors and seniors, meeting scholastic requirements, are recommended for membership in Quill and Scroll. Members of the Business Staff of the Declaration attended the convention of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, held at Columbia University in New York and the convention of the Southern Interscholastic Press Association, held at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Virginia. From these meetings helpful ideas were brought to improve the Declaration.

The heartbeat of the school, the JEFFERSONIAN, reflects the ideas and activities of every phase of student life. Information on school events, light articles about students, and both coverage and feature stories on athletics are presented through the three main departments of the literary staff-news, feature, and sports. The heads of departments in the staff send out story assignments and are responsible for all material printed on their pages.

Each department has two pages of this six-page bi-weekly newspaper. Page editors draw up dummies, measure and proofread stories, and write head-lines. Typists and student photographers, who develop their own pictures, contribute to the production of the JEFFERSONIAN.

When, Where?

Although most positions on the staff are held by seniors, the 5XJ and 6XJ journalism classes are the channels through which flows the life blood of the paper. These junior students serve as reporters and runners. The rigid schedule of the paper requires two periods a day, time before and after school, and occasionally time at night.

The editor, assistant editor, and adviser supervise the entire staff and are responsible for printer arrangements and the publishing of the JEFFERSONIAN. The editorial board, composed of those in the top positions, conducts the editorial column and sets policies.

Delegates are sent to both the Southern Interscholastic and Columbia Press Association conventions to gain new ideas to better the JEFFERSONIAN, heart-beat of Thomas Jefferson High School.

JEFFERSONIAN BUSINESS STAFF

Dealings in Dimes . . .

When you want the news, turn to the Jeffersonian; but when the Jeffersonian wants money, it turns to the Business Staff. Composed of two groups, advertising and circulation, both of which are advised in business matters by Mrs. Thelma Bryant Hutton, the staff has the responsibility of converting its members' salesmanship ability and initiative into dollars and cents for the Jeffersonian. The advertising Staff which sells the advertising space in the paper, is made up of a manager, an assistant manager, an exchange editor, and a group of copy writers and solicitors.

And Dollars

Daily, in their sixth period study, the members meet to discuss the "ads" and the most effective layout for them. Approximately ten days before publication dates, copy is drawn up and sent to the printer. The following Monday proofs of the "ads" are received from the printer and checked. Wednesday the final check is made on the pages and finally on the following Friday the paper is delivered to its subscribers.

In the meantime the Circulation Staff, composed of sixty-one lieutenants, fifteen captains, and the managers, has also been performing its duties. At the beginning of the year a gigantic drive is staged, designed to interest the students in purchasing a term-subscription of seven issues for the price of sixty cents.

Making the Rounds

The lieutenants are the key men in circulation as they are responsible for persuading their fellow homeroom members to buy the Jeffersonian. The money passes from them to the captains, each of whom supervises four homerooms. As a result of this frantic selling, thirty-four homerooms had one hundred percent in the last drive. The Cadet Corps also subscribed one hundred percent. The staff handles about two hundred mailing subscriptions to alumni, advertisers, and schools on the exchange lists. On the day the paper comes out they fold, by hand, all those hundreds of copies of the paper that they have sold.

Last year the Jeffersonian was named second in the nation in advertising at the Columbia Scholastic Press Association's Convention held at Columbia University in New York.

Of Books No End

Not all is quiet on the Library Staff during the busy routine of the day. Usually three students work in the library each period. The duties of the student assigned to the desk are charging out books, receiving books, and slipping books. The other students shelve books, carry messages, prepare new books for circulation, mend books, and assist the librarians in their duties.

Memories of . . .

The annual Community Chest Drive, concerts at the Virginia Education Association, and the Virginia State String Orchestra are special occasions which require the cooperation of both the preparatory orchestra and concert orchestra. In spring the orchestra combines with the choir to present the Annual Spring Concert and the operettas. This year's operetta was "Plain and Fancy."

Not only classical music is studied, but also, for variety and enjoyment, the orchestra often plays novelties and semi-classical compositions.

Orchestral Strains

The students have a chance to become better acquainted with the world's great composers and their works and to learn to present skillfully these compositions through their respective instruments.

Five T. J. orchestra students have been recognized for their musical abilities by scholarships to Miami University. Officers are elected each term to assist Mr. Wendt, the director, and to take over the various responsibilities whenever he is unable to be present.

Sing and . . .

Harmonius sounds flowing from within the walls of room 218 mean that Mr. Alton Howell is directing the A Cappella Choir, which is composed of select voice students. Members of the choir are chosen for their special interest in good music. They must have a sincere desire to work with others like themselves to create melodious vocal music. This year the choir sang for an evening service at First Baptist Church and for the statewide Distributive Education Convention. The A Cappella, Girls' Glee Clubs and the orchestra combined to present Handel's "Messiah" at Christmas-time. Soloists for the occasion were David Newell, Jane Page, Margie McFee and Kay Mizell. The choir and the orchestra provided special music for the Community Fund Luncheon, Thanksgiving, Christmas, and other special assemblies, Civic Clubs, the Virginia Education Association Convention, the Spring Concert, the Tee Jay Baccalaureate and commencement exercises.

The annual presentation of the music department is the operetta. This year the choir chose the Broadway musical comedy, "Plain and Fancy," by Arnold Horwitt and Albert Hague. "Plain and Fancy" depicts life in a typical Amish community in Pennsylvania. Two New Yorkers descend on the settlement to try to sell some property to some Amish people. During their brief stay numerous situations arise. Romance fills the air as the Amish prepare for a wedding and as an Amish girl's fancy turns toward catching a big city man. The differences between New York life and Amish life create rather humorous incidents which add variety to the show.

Working and Learning

Distributive Education is the study of retailing in all its phases. The sponsor, Mr. Haywood A. Padgett, aided students in gaining experience in retailing and in finding jobs. The first Tuesday of every month found the club discussing ways to promote better relationships between schools with D. E. classes and to secure the cooperation of Richmond merchants. The D. E. Club of John Marshall joined the D. E. Club of Thomas Jefferson once a month for meetings. The two groups also consolidated to attend the World Trade Convention at Old Point Comfort, Virginia. In the spring a state-wide convention was held in Richmond. These activities make the D. E. Club a busy and well-informed group. The meetings were led by Robert Ryan and Barbara Cottrell.

Journalistic Spotlight

Outstanding staff members of the three school publications in Tee Jay are chosen for membership in this international honorary society at fall and spring candle light initiation services. The impressive service is presented by those who are members of Quill and Scroll at the time. The participants each light a candle from the center candle, the candle of truth. The candles lighted represent initiative, opportunity, leadership, loyalty, enlightenment, friendship, all of which are essentials of good journalism. From the concentrated flames of the candles, the initiated light their candles and repeat the Quill and Scroll pledge.

To become a member a student must be a junior or senior who has worked one or more years on a publication, who has a B average, who has been recommended by his adviser, and approved by the national secretary of the organization of Quill and Scroll.

Lexington, Southern Interscholastic Press Association, and food suggest the main project for the year for the Ellen Glasgow Chapter of Quill and Scroll. Tee Jay's chapter was responsible for the annual Quill and Scroll Banquet and program at the SIPA Convention, which was held at Washington and Lee University in Lexington. The week-end of April 26-27 saw a large group of Jeff Quill and Scroll members working in Lexington to make the banquet a success. Money to carry out the project had been raised by various activities throughout the school, such as a picnic and a bake sale. This year the Ellen Glasgow Chapter was more active than ever before, and the chapter had much enjoyment from its activities inside and outside of school.

This fifteenth year of the Corps was highlighted with the arrival of a new commandant, Lt. Colonel O. H. Linck, and his assistant, Captain Joseph Benedetti. Corps activities included the fall competitive drill won by Company C, two sponsors' days, and participation in three parades.

The Band represented Virginia as Honor Band at the Cherry Blossom Festival. High points of the year were the two Cadet Hops. Scheduled for the Spring were a competitive drill and Efficiency Cup competition.

Our Pep Gals

"Victory, Victory, do or die!" was the cry throughout the halls of Tee Jay. The cheerleaders held practices beginning in the summer and continuing throughout the year. Sporting four types of uniforms, they "whooped" it up at pep rallies and all games. Vigorously and enthusiastically led by Sara Ellen Flowers, they instilled in the students a feeling of school spirit and good sportsmanship. Their projects included painting posters, decorating the stadium, selling "Beat J. M." cards and chartering busses. Junior cheerleaders were Bunni Payne and Cathy Stephens.

"You've Got to Be . . .

T.J. 20-LANE 0—Winning over a surprisingly strong Lane team, the Jeffs opened their season. This sizeable victory came in spite of apparent sluggishness in the Jeff's eleven.

T.J. 7-HIGHLAND SPRINGS 13—Before 5,000 spectators, the Belt Liners lost a hard fought game to a powerful Springer eleven. This was one of the better games played in this area during the year.

T.J. 6-MANCHESTER 0—Tee Jay bounced back to the winning column by defeating a strong Manchester team. A blocked punt set up the only score. The Jeffs scored early and then played defense to win.

T.J. 0-PETERSBURG 6—Playing in a steady drizzle, the Jeffs were upset by Petersburg. A recovered fumble in the end zone was the only score of the contest, which ended with T.J. on the Wave's 20-yard line.

T.J. 0-GEORGE WASHINGTON 6—Despite their strong running attack, the Belt Liners in their best effort to date were defeated by one of the top teams in Virginia.

T.J. 0-HERMITAGE 7—For the third week in a row the Jeffs suffered a heartbreaking defeat. Played in the rain, the game turned into a defensive duel with the breaks determining the winner. This has become the "big" game of the year.

T.J. 7-WASHINGTON-LEE 10—On their second venture North, the Jeffs were defeated by the State Champions via a field goal. The game was played on an extremely muddy field, thus creating a hardship on the spectators as well as the players. The question was, "Who's who?"

T.J. 13-HOPEWELL 6—The Jeffs rolled to a sensational victory over Hopewell. By sheer power, the Belt Liners blasted Hopewell from the Central District Championship. It was the best team effort to date.

T.J. 7-WAKEFIELD 12—Inaugurating a new series, Tee Jay bowed to Wakefield's strong passing attack. Tee Jay started off fast, scoring in the first five minutes, but the tide turned just before halftime.

T.J. 6-JOHN MARSHALL 6—In the 26th renewal of the series, the Jeffs and the Justices played to a tie. Tee Jay dominated the first half and Jay Em, the second. The game was played before one of the smallest crowds in history, indicating that an old cross-town rivalry is fast dying.

RESUME—Opening the 1956 season, Tee Jay looked forward to its sixth straight winning season. This goal was never realized, however. The season, although an odd one, was exciting. The Jeffs ended with a 3-6-1 record. However, on the three away games, the Tee Jay students gave their team marvelous support. Thus, another chapter in Thomas Jefferson's grid history is concluded.

"Feudin' and Fightin'"

Ending the season with a record of three wins, three ties, and only two losses, the Varsity Hockey team placed Judy Shocket on the first team at the Virginia Allied Hockey Tournament held at Westhampton College. Two members, Irene Bambacus and Nancy Slusser, were placed on the second team while Janice Wood received honorable mention. Leading the team this year as co-captains were Irene Bambacus and Leslie Hughes. The Junior Varsity ended their season with a record of seven wins and one loss—to St. Catherine's. Leading this team as co-captains were Nancy Wilson and Barbara Gordon.

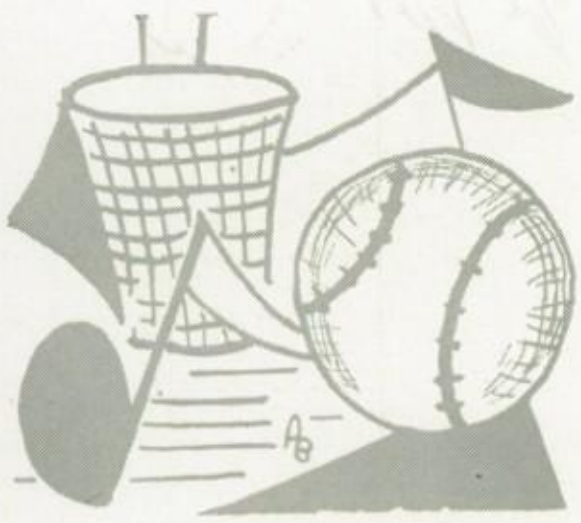
Lady Basketeers



Winning five out of eight games the Girls' Varsity Basketball Team went on to place Janet Harwood and Carolyn Smith on the All-Prep Basketball team at the High School Basketball Tournament held at Petersburg. Receiving honorable mention was Sarah Olert. Jane Meyers and Janet Harwood led the team as co-captains. At the twelfth Annual Varsity-Alumnae Game, the Varsity topped the Alumnae 59 to 43. The Junior Varsity ended their season with three wins and five losses. Barbara Hawthorne and Anne Jackson managed both teams.

Only Two Points More

Tee Jay opened its 1956-57 basketball season against a jinxed team, and again the jinx prevailed, as Tee Jay lost to G. W. 47-63. Undaunted by this defeat, the Belt Liners bounced back to wallop a strong E. C. Glass team 61-47. Lane was the next victim by a score of 64-48. The Hermitage Panthers handed the Jeffs one of their rare home-court losses 57-62. But Tee Jay bounced back to defeat. In the next encounter Tee Jay won a thrilling game from John Marshall 45-44. Slumping into a two-game losing streak, the Jeffs lost to Hopewell 53-66 and Glass 47-55. Retaliation came at the expense of Petersburg 66-30. Then a four-game winning streak

After defeating Petersburg 47-40, Tee Jay lost to George Washington, one of Virginia's strongest teams by a score of 73-77. Tee Jay defeated Hopewell 48-46 to qualify for the first Central District Tournament. The Belt Liners were defeated twice in the tourney, John Marshall 45-52, and Hopewell 60-74. Thus concluded another chapter in basketball history at Tee Jay.

Lady Sluggers

Having games scheduled with Petersburg, Hopewell, Midlothian, Manchester, Binford, John Marshall and St. Catherine's, the softball team early this spring began practicing diligently on the diamond in front of the school. The lady sluggers worked long and hard to perfect their various skills and to develop a team equal, at least, the best of former years. The interest, perseverance, and skill of the femmies was to be rewarded near the end of the season in May when a presentation of awards was planned to honor the outstanding members of the team. Chosen as co-captains of the team were Jane Myers and Maridell Bugg.

"At the Ole Ball Game"

Tee Jay's defending Metropolitan Championship baseball team prepared to open its season with five veteran players and many untried ones. The veterans included Butch Spiegel, Dukie Selden, Amos Thorpe, John Bagby, and Sonny Taylor. Among the newcomers were John Anthony, Wythe Grubbs, and Bobby Butler. The team opened its season at Petersburg by losing 1-3. In the next game the Jeffs monopolized on Highland Springs' errors to win 16-5 and later defeated Hermitage. John Marshall invaded Shawen Field and was defeated 2-0. Hopewell, Manchester, Benedictine, and Petersburg made the Jeffs miserable, but they defeated Highland Springs.

Track season at Tee Jay opened indoors at Lexington with the State Indoor Meet. The Jeffs took fourth place. At the State A.A.U. Indoor Meet, Tee Jay placed third. Butch Spiegel, one of the greatest runners in Tee Jay history, was invited to participate in the Evening Star Meet at Washington, where he won two fourth places and one third place against some of the best competition in the country. In the outdoor season, paced by Captain Butch Spiegel, Joe Davis, Donnie Rogerson, and Cary Mayo, the Thinclads won their first meet from Hermitage 86-23. At Hopewell the Jeffs trounced the Blue Devils 83-26. Other sparkplugs of the team were John Prevatt, Al Broaddus, Arnie Powell, and Jimmy Moss.

Opening the season at Randolph-Macon College, the netters won 6-3, then defeated University of Richmond 8-1. They then defeated the University of North Carolina freshman team 5-4. at The Life of Virginia

Your high school diploma is your passport to a good job with a real future, at the Home Office of The Life of Virginia. And it's a secure future with this 85-year-old insurance company...the kind of company you'll choose when you take out your own life insurance.

Come by or write for booklet that gives you the facts about your opportunities . . . how other young people have succeeded . . . and working conditions. Good pay, of course; five-day week; free advancement training courses; liberal vacations; air conditioned offices; employee cafeteria; insurance and retirement plans. It's all in the free folder, "Now, Really . . .". Be sure to get your copy.

Write or contact Personnel Division.

The Mark of a Champion!

When a young man can face the business world with the same undaunted courage that he bucks the line in football, and can take the bumps that inevitably will come to him in business, and can keep his fighting spirit and keep smiling . . . then he has the mark of a champion. The world needs young men like this and the world will make way for them. The life insurance business needs such men, so why not prepare yourself for a career in the life insurance business. It's a business of opportunity for young men of ambition and vision.

You'd never believe that I did ever call you dear Charlie - well I do - you really have been very sweet to me for four years and I thank you that you gave me four years I really have enjoyed them - thank you for everything - I'll never forget you - I'll try to be worthy of your kindness - I'll continue to be successful - I'll make a mistake - I'll be sure to call you dear Charlie - well

We Wish to Thank . . .

Dear Charlie,

It has been great knowing you through the years at Hill and here. I have really enjoyed it. Best of luck at Vee En One and I'll be seeing you around. Yours truly,

Dear Charlie,

Next year while you're a sat up at the "prison" I will be thinking of you. While you're walking the sat line, think of me playing football and raising hell. When you're working hard on your studies, I'll be out making like mad will some babe. Whenever you "brace", think of me out sipping some ice cold brew. While you effect is spelling at you, I'll be at some party having fun. Yes, Charlie, I think of you up there in oblivion. But when the reports come out and you get your "A"s and I get my "F"s I'll wish I was with you. But all in all enjoy yourself and good luck.

John "Lover" Triggsby

P.S. Lease me your girls

lots of luck. Be a sweet guy. I'll see you in Europe, maybe. Write me.

Love, Lover Boy Triggsby
